

A HAPPY EMPLOYEE

TOP CONCERNS

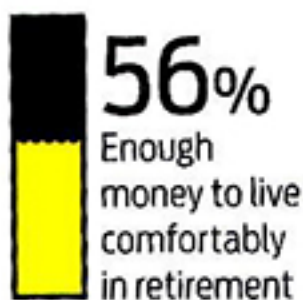

Financial security for family after death is the No. 1 concern for employees

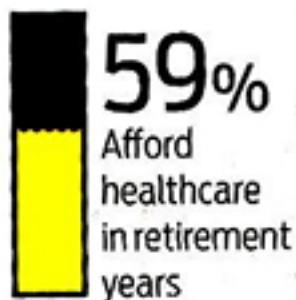

The percentage of employers who actually do offer life insurance

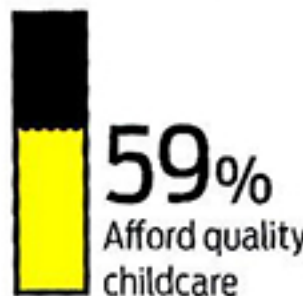

Indian employees who claim their employer offers life insurance

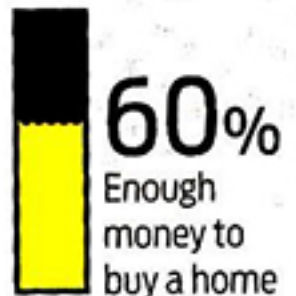

Enough money to live comfortably in retirement

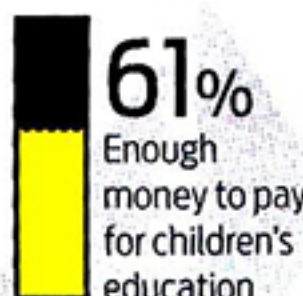

Afford healthcare in retirement years

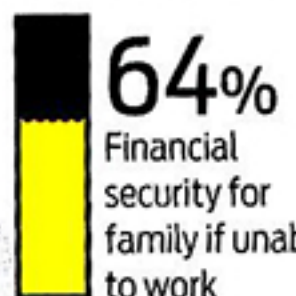

Afford quality childcare

Enough money to buy a home

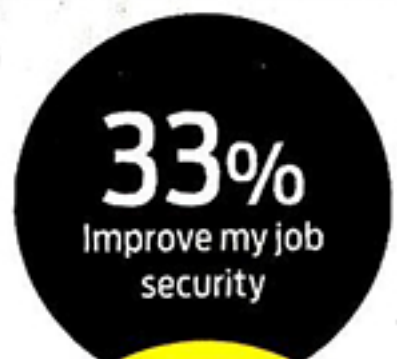

Enough money to pay for children's education

Financial security for family if unable to work

BENEFITS MATTER

Of the 47 per cent employees considering leaving their employer, these are the top reasons they would stay:

Improve my job security

Provide advancement opportunities

Contribute more towards my retirement plan

Improve my benefits package

Increase my salary

54%

Admit spending time thinking about personal financial issues at work

